Personal Message from Tommy Dayton

I wish to play at the next level so I may compete with the best in the country. I understand that there are those who are more deserving of the position that I desire, but I also know that there is no one who would capitalize on a chance to play like I would. I welcome any and all competition and do not fear failure. I show out in the games that count and love this sport with my entirety. I dedicate myself to my craft everyday, not with the intention of just checking boxes, but with an intention to be great. I have a deep obsession for the game of football and intend to carry that passion into the rest of my life. The ability to be a part of your program would be a privilege beyond anything I could ever imagine. Thank you so much for your time.

Overall I envision Tommy becoming a versatile and athletic defensive playmaker in college. He has the athletic profile to develop into a reliable defender in pass coverage and as a blitzer to pressure opposing quarterbacks. Playing him inside or outside, he can handle the heavy run-action between the tackles and chase down a RB, or QB out of the backfield.

His athleticism to take over early in a game is apparent. He possesses a football IQ, much higher than his peers and it shows when dealing with the processing responsibility as a middle linebacker. He would benefit from covering hash to sideline in coverage and securing the edges/outside as a run defender to funnel runs back inside. Due to his athleticism, Tommy could operate as a QB spy at times with the influx of athletically gifted mobile quarterbacks in today's game.

As only a sophomore prospect, he communicates assignments well with his teammates. Whether countering offensive alignment shifts or the quarterback's audibles, he has shown good skills in the leadership department. He has the athleticism and range you covet at the linebacker position. He can chase down plays from the backside working into the quarterback's passing lanes/vision. As a run defender, he does handle offensive linemen with quickness and physical strength and intelligence. Tommy uses his speed and quickness to slip/evade offensive linemen before making a play on the football. Excels on kickoffs and sheds blockers easily.

As the middle linebacker for Stevenson, Tommy is an impact player and second-level defender. He is a clear leader on this team, (Lead the Team in Tackles) as he has been voted team captain for his upcoming Junior season.
